

Writers Workshop?

The Gospel Songwriters Workshop is a workshop designed to provide educational and practical business applications to individuals who are interested in songwriting, singing, praise dancing and music. If you work with the choir or praise team of your church, you will gain a greater knowledge about how to improve your choir, praise team or group. You will also learn new material that can be used in any praise and worship service and also be used for groups and ensembles. Those who are songwriters will have the opportunity to enhance their knowledge about songwriting and have a chance to present their own original material.

Who Should Attend?

People of all ages can benefit from attending this workshop. If you are a person who loves singing, songwriting or you are a musician, this workshop is for you. The classes are designed to be informative at every level. Some of our classes include: Singing and vocal technique; microphone technique; training your ear to hear just to name a few topics. We also have a workshop choir for those individuals who are not praise dancers, soloists, songwriters or musicians, but love to sing.

Those who are professionals within the music industry will have the opportunity to access up and coming songwriters, singers and musicians as well as highlight and promote their areas of expertise.

What Can I Expect?

Expect excellent topics, knowledgeable clinicians and a full 3 days worth of activities that are designed to create growth both naturally and spiritually. Regardless of your experience and knowledge you will gain useful information at every level. This is an excellent opportunity to share as you learn.

Your workshop fee includes the following events occurring during This 3 day period:

- Admission to all Classes and seminars on songwriting, singing, music, copyrighting materials, praise dancing and much, much more.
